

Hi Ladies!

I am writing to clarify Syd's note regarding our FABULOUS upcoming Murder Mystery Dinner. At this point, I have an abundance of wonderful women willing to perform. YAY! (Everyone who volunteered at our last meeting has been cast.)

At this point, I really need a few great ladies to volunteer their assistance behind the scenes as a stage manager, assistant stage manager, and 1-2 ladies to be in charge of props.

And, since this is a dinner show, we'll need a dynamic duo—or one superhuman—to step forward and volunteer their service as the Dinner Diva(s): overseeing the dinner portion of the evening. We'll need those of you who are not in the show to serve as cooks and waitresses.

So, lots to discuss on Thursday. If you can't make the meeting but would like to volunteer for a particular job, just shoot me a text (802) 989-3240 or email juleemerson@icloud.com

In the meantime, be thinking about a menu for this event.

Best,
jule
